

Eligibility Requirements

- Students from backgrounds that are traditionally underrepresented in biomedical research
- Enrolled in an accredited undergraduate institution
- Preference given to rising Juniors and Seniors
- Minimum 3.0 GPA
- Two (2) years of science/public health courses completed by the beginning of the program

Program Details

- Seven (7) weeks (May-July)
- Monday-Friday from 9am-5pm
- Poster presentations
- Stipend of $3,000
- Housing may be provided for out of state students

DOWNSTATE
HEALTH SCIENCES UNIVERSITY

Translational Program of Health Disparities Research Training (TRANSPORT) presents:

Summer Program in Translational Disparities and Community Engaged Research (SPRINTER)

An enriching summer research experience that provides undergraduate students with research experiences in epidemiology, biostatistics, and community-based research

Application Requirements

Online Application
(includes essay)

One (1) letter of recommendation
from a science or math professor

Unofficial Transcript

Program acceptance
includes an interview
process

Deadline: March 21st

Program Highlights

Hands on research
with a mentor

Health disparities and basic biostatistics lectures

Journal Club sessions

Downstate Lab tours

Research tours at SUNY Albany

Opportunity to connect with potential jobs

Best Summer Program For The Next Generation of Healthcare Professionals

[CLICK HERE
TO APPLY!](#)

Have Questions?

Email diversityprograms@downstate.edu

Please mention SPRINTER in the subject line