

EARLY MEDICAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

[CLICK
HERE TO APPLY](#)

EARLY MEDICAL EDUCATION PROGRAM, at SUNY Downstate Health Sciences University, is a 2 summer initiative aimed at increasing the competitiveness of pre-medical students, by providing MCAT preparation and academic support. Students will learn time and stress management skills with clinicians. Program is virtual.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Summer Session I

- MCAT Boot camp
- Stipend of $1500
- MCAT Exam

Summer Session II

- Pre-matriculation program providing an overview of the first few weeks of medical school material.
- Stipend of $1000

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- U.S. Citizens or Permanent residents
- Educationally or financially disadvantaged
- Currently enrolled in one of our affiliated colleges
- Juniors and seniors
- Science GPA 3.2 and non-science 3.5
- Completed all MCAT suggested courses by 1st summer

Successful participants of EME are awarded conditional acceptance to SUNY Downstate's College of Medicine.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Online application (includes essay)
- 2 Letters of recommendation (1 from Science/Math professor)
- Evaluation from your school's EME Liaison
- Official Undergraduate transcripts from all colleges attended
- Interview by the EME Admissions committee (for selected candidates)
- Application deadline February 21

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

- Maintain GPA requirements while enrolled
- Meet MCAT requirements
- Attend both summer sessions

QUESTIONS?

Diversityprograms@downstate.edu

Please mention EME in the subject line