TARGET AUDIENCE
This program is designed for ophthalmologists, ophthalmology residents, and medical students in the New York metropolitan area.

PURPOSE
This year’s program features the most current concepts and practical tips for clinical practice in Corneal Disease, Retina, Glaucoma, Ocular Oncology, Plastics and Cataract/IOLs. In addition we offer innovative lectures on managing complicated surgical cases as well as treatment modalities. This is a timely and relevant program addressing the key issues in research and patient care.

OBJECTIVES
Participants in the course will learn the most current concepts and practical tips for clinical use in the following areas:
- Managing complicated cataracts surgically
- Learning current methods for IOL formulas
- Acute Retinal Ischemia
- Learning current SJS Treatments
- Learning about non-mydriatic Ophthalmoscopy
- Learning about dislocated IOL management
- Learning about surgical retina techniques
- Learning about HSV Keratitis
- EMR in Ophthalmology
