

Q14-17 Addendum 3 7/1/14 Temporary Personnel Services
New Job Title for Job Titles Summary

Physicist / Dosimetrist*:

Bachelor's degree. New York State License in Medical Physics, and American Board of Radiology Certification in Medical Physics.

Assume overall responsibilities for radiation therapy physics within the Department of Radiation Oncology. Prepare computerized treatment plans for radiation therapy patients. Calibrate and maintain patient management equipment in accordance with applicable regulations and protocols. Providing administrative and technical directions, control and cohesion for physicists within the Department of Radiation Oncology. Providing assistance to the residents, fellows, medical students, therapists, and nursing personnel in radiation physics, dosimetry, treatment planning, and radiation safety. Providing the in-depth back-up for physics personnel. Acting as a consultant to departmental chairman, hospital administration, and other departments in radiation therapy physics, and radiation research.

Please update the "Cost Proposal Grid Summary" accordingly with the "Approximate Annual Hours" column indicating one-hundred (100).