

I. INSTRUCTIONS

Doctoral students who have passed the Qualifying Exam are required to complete a Progress Review Form at the end of each semester in which they sign up for PUBH 8001 credits and in order to receive a passing grade. Progress made toward completion of the dissertation should be aligned with the number of PUBH 8001 credits completed that semester. If the student has a dissertation committee formed, this form should be reviewed, discussed, and signed by the chair of the committee. If the student has yet to form a dissertation committee, the form should be reviewed, discussed, and signed by the student's faculty advisor. Students should complete sections II through IV, review with their advisor or committee chair, obtain all electronic signatures in section V, and submit the completed and signed form in Brightspace no later than the due date posted on the course site.
