VOCES TRANSCENDING: LATINO LITERARY EXPRESSION NOW

THURSDAY
OCTOBER 12TH, 2023
3:00PM

SUNY System Administration, 353 Broadway, Albany, New York
In-person, SUNY System - Courtrooms with live-stream

Speakers:

*Dr. Leonardo Falcón,
Dr. Rosie Hurtado,
Dr. Ricardo Nazario y Colón*

This event is a celebration of the month's events with final words by SUNY's newly appointed Vice-Chancellor and acclaimed poet, Dr. Ricardo Nazario y Colón. It features a plática between Drs. Nazario y Colón, Falcón, and Hurtado to explore the creative process for creating literary expression, the meaning of representation among the arts, and the importance of cultural aesthetics from Latino communities in contributing to the tapestry of US identity. This event will be open to the public, and specifically invite students from local high schools and SUNY campuses to attend. We invite newly emerging voices to share their works in a spoken-word poetry finale. Reception included.
