

Access to Transplantation Services in an Underserved Urban Setting: A Community Health Benefit

Thursday, May 23, 2024

8:00 AM–3:30 PM

Downstate Alumni Auditorium
Brooklyn, NY

COURSE DIRECTORS

Caroline Rochon, MD, FACS

Chief of Transplantation Surgery,
Associate Professor of Surgery

Mariana S. Markell, MD, FACP, FNKF, FAST

Medical Director, Kidney Transplantation
Professor of Medicine

This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM.

Please register by scanning the QR code or by following the link below:
[downstatetransplant24.
eventbrite.com](https://downstatetransplant24.eventbrite.com)

DOWNSTATE
HEALTH SCIENCES UNIVERSITY

Special Medicine Grand Round
Guest Speaker at 8:30 AM

From Bench to Bill: Policy Impact in Solid Organ Transplantation

Dorry L. Segev, MD, PhD

Professor, Department of Surgery
Professor, Department of Population Health

Vice Chair of Research, Department of Surgery

Surgical Sciences Director, Center for Surgical and Transplant

Applied Research (C-STAR)

New York University Grossman School of Medicine

Special Afternoon Session
Guest Speaker at 1:15 PM

Treating Diabetes in Patients with Kidney Transplants: Emerging Role of GLP1RA and SGLT2i's

Jocelyne G. Karam, MD

Director, Endocrinology & Metabolism
Maimonides Medical Center