

The Office of the President &
The Office of Communications & Marketing present

A DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH PANEL

From Harm to Healing: Reframing Domestic Violence Through a Public Health Lens

Wednesday, October 22, 2025
11:30 AM to 1:00 PM

Lecture Hall 1A | 395 Lenox Road entrance

PANELISTS

Saloni Sethi, LMSW

Commissioner

Mayor's Office to End Domestic and Gender-Based Violence (ENDGBV)

Marlon Peterson

Executive Director

College & Community Fellowship (CCF)

Priyanka Datta, M.D.

Emergency Medicine Attending Physician & Director Clinical Forensic Medicine Fellowship

NYC Health + Hospitals / Kings County

MODERATOR

Dawn S. Walker, MPA

Vice President of Communications & Marketing

SUNY Downstate Health Sciences University

PURPLE DAY PHOTO TO IMMEDIATELY FOLLOW

DOWNSTATE
HEALTH SCIENCES UNIVERSITY

ABOUT THE EVENT

This panel explores how domestic and gender-based violence functions as a public health issue, highlighting survivor-centered, trauma-informed strategies that integrate prevention, clinical care, and policy to advance safety, healing, and health equity across communities.

LIMITED QUANTITY OF T-SHIRTS AVAILABLE

TO VIEW THE LIVESTREAM

Scan the QR or visit
<https://tinyurl.com/ye2b55re>

PARTICIPANT BIOS

For more information about our participants:

Scan the QR or visit
<https://tinyurl.com/3s4shv83>