Virtual

Aspiring Leaders Program – Virtual

This six-session (3 ½ hours each) virtual training program provides participants with emotionally intelligent leadership skills to lead teams and create motivating work environments that foster trust and accountability. Lecture, class discussion, and engaging activities address real-world issues. Course topics include: Leading Self and Others, Emotional Intelligence, Effective Communication, Setting and Attaining Goals, Improving Performance, and Developing a Leadership Action Plan. Prior to the workshop, enrollees will be required to complete an online DiSC assessment. Participants will be sent the Participant Workbook via email prior to the first session. Participants will receive prework and the workbook by email. Printing out certain pages will be helpful but not necessary, and blank paper can be used for the exercises if preferred. Grades 18-23 & M-1 only.
