

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES- CONFIDENTIALITY OF MENTAL HEALTH INFORMATION AND PSYCHOTHERAPY NOTES

Effective Date: May 29, 2011

The privacy and confidentiality of mental health information and psychotherapy notes maintained by SUNY Downstate Medical Center Health Science Center at Brooklyn is protected by Federal and State law and regulations. These protections go above and beyond the protections described in SUNY Downstate Medical Center Health Science Center at Brooklyn's general Notice of Privacy Practices.

We recommend that you also take time to review SUNY Downstate Medical Center Health Science Center at Brooklyn's general Notice of Privacy Practices. Our general Notice of Privacy Practices also provides information about how you may obtain access to your health information, including mental health information. If there is any conflict between the general Notice of Privacy Practices and this notice, the protections described in this notice will apply instead of the protections described in the general Notice of Privacy Practices.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF MENTAL HEALTH INFORMATION

Mental health information about you may be used by personnel within SUNY Downstate Medical Center Health Science Center at Brooklyn (or its business associates) in connection with their duties to provide you with treatment, obtain payment for that treatment or conduct SUNY Downstate Medical Center Health Science Center at Brooklyn's business operations. Generally SUNY Downstate Medical Center Health Science Center at Brooklyn may not reveal mental health information about you to external individuals, except in the following situations:

- When we have obtained your written authorization;
- To a personal representative who is authorized to make health care decisions on your behalf;
- To government agencies or private insurance companies in order to obtain payment for services we provided to you;
- To comply with a court order;
- To appropriate persons who are able to avert a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of you or another person;
- To appropriate government authorities to locate a missing person or conduct a criminal investigation as permitted under Federal and State confidentiality laws;
- To other licensed hospital emergency services as permitted under Federal and State confidentiality laws;
- To the mental hygiene legal service offered by the State;
- To attorneys representing patients in an involuntary hospitalization proceeding;
- To authorized government officials for the purpose of monitoring or evaluating the quality of care provided by SUNY Downstate Medical Center Health Science Center at Brooklyn or its staff;
- To qualified researchers without your specific authorization when such research poses minimal risk to your privacy;
- To coroners and medical examiners to determine cause of death; and
- If you are an inmate, to a correctional facility which certifies that the information is necessary in order to provide you with health care, or in order to protect the health or safety of you or any other persons at the correctional facility.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF PSYCHOTHERAPY NOTES

Psychotherapy notes are notes by a mental health professional that document or analyze the contents of a conversation during a private counseling session – or during a group, joint, or family counseling session. If these notes are maintained separate from the rest of your medical records, they can only be used and disclosed as follows. In general, psychotherapy notes may not be used or disclosed without your written authorization, except in the following circumstances.

Psychotherapy notes about you may be used and disclosed without your written authorization in the following situations:

- The mental health professional who created the notes may use them to provide you with further treatment;
- The mental health professional who created the notes may disclose them to students, trainees or practitioners in mental health who are learning under supervision to practice or improve their skills in group, joint, family, or individual counseling;
- The mental health professional who created the notes may disclose them as necessary to defend his or herself or SUNY Downstate Medical Center Health Science Center at Brooklyn in a legal proceeding initiated by you or your personal representative;
- The mental health professional who created the notes may disclose them as required by law;
- The mental health professional who created the notes may disclose the notes to appropriate government authorities when necessary to avert a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of you or another person;
- The mental health professional who created the notes may disclose them to the United States Department of Health and Human Services when that agency requests them in order to investigate the mental health professional's compliance, or SUNY Downstate Medical Center Health Science Center at Brooklyn's compliance, with Federal privacy and confidentiality laws and regulations; and
- The mental health professional who created the notes may disclose them to medical examiners and coroners, if necessary, to determine your cause of death.

All other uses and disclosures of psychotherapy notes require your special written authorization.
