Award Closeout

Award Closeout entails: Review of expenses; Approve and pay final invoices; Submit programmatic/technical progress reports; Submit final financial reports and request carryover

Technology Commercialization

If any inventions have been made and not yet disclosed, they should be disclosed now.

Manage Project

Management of a Project entails: Monitoring expenses; Submitting budget modifications (when applicable); Submitting IFR/RF change forms for changes in personnel/effort (when applicable); Effort Reporting; Sub-recipient Monitoring (Review and approve invoices; travel to sites for site visits and document sites performance in progress reports)

Find Funding

Funding Opportunities are available on our website for Federal and Non-Federal sponsorsFunding Opportunities are available on our website for Federal and non-Federal sponsors

Develop Proposal PI and study team will develop the proposal; SPA team is available to provide quidance.

Proposal will be submitted after review to ensure application meets sponsor & intitution guidelines and policies

Award Setup

CONGRATULATIONS! Now is the time to: Hire personnel; Submit IFR/RF change forms; Issue consortium agreements; Hire consultants and purchase equipment

Protocol Submissions: IRB, IACUC, IBC IRB, IACUC and IBC protocols should be reviewed and approved during this period, prior to Award setup, to ensure research can begin upon award.