

SUNY/CUNY PROGRAM

THE NEW YORK BIOSCIENCE/ BIOTECHNOLOGY TECHNICIAN PROGRAM

Turning the Graduates of TODAY
Into the Workforce of TOMORROW

- Designed to meet the technician workforce needs of research institutions, biotechnology companies and the biotech-related industry
- Will place skilled CUNY B.A./M.A. science majors into internships and employment positions
- Graduates are proficient in cell and molecular biology techniques, including:
 - Plasmid DNA transformation
 - Restriction analyses and gel electrophoresis
 - Western and Southern Blotting
 - Protein purification
 - RNA isolation
 - RT-PCR
 - Gel purification and cloning of PCR products

TO REQUEST INTERNS & EMPLOYEES

___Mr.

___Ms.

___Dr.

Name

Title

Institution/Company Name

Street

City, State and Zip

Email Address

Telephone #

Interns: Number _____

Employees: Number _____

Return Form To:

Eva Cramer, Ph.D.
Fax: 718-270-1878
ecramer@downstate.edu

Patricia Rockwell, Ph.D.
Fax: 212-772-5227
rockwell@genectr.hunter.cuny.edu