

High School Students

TRANSPORT II
 Brooklyn Health
 Equity Institute
 Summer Program

Research program that provides High School students with research experiences in basic science, public health, and community- based research.

Undergraduate Students

TRANSPORT I
 Summer Program
 in Translational and Community Engaged
 Research (SPRINTER)

Research program that provides undergraduate students with research experiences in basic science, public health, and neighborhood-based research.

Medical Students

TRANSPORT I
 Program to Accelerate
 Academic Careers in Research (PACERS)

Research Program that addresses the urgent need to prepare investigators for health research.

Graduate Students

TRANSPORT II
 Transitions to Academic
 Careers (TRACS)

Research Program that provides students in MD, DrPH, DNP programs with an intensive research experience that prepares them for competitive residency or post-doctoral positions.

Post Doctoral Fellows

TRANSPORT I
 Post-Doctoral Fellows

Research plans closely tied to mentor and developed post-selection while in training, minor project budget.

Junior Faculty Program

TRANSPORT I
 Junior Faculty

Research plans developed post-selection while in training, minor project budget.

Advanced Postdoctoral Fellows and Junior Faculty

TRANSPORT II

Research program that recruits 3 new full-time scientists over 5 years from groups underrepresented who will bring additional expertise in social science, population health, implementation science research and expand network of mentors for trainees.

Community Science Cafes

TRANSPORT II

Research forum for implementing a new 16-week research training program where community partners receive structured training on principles of community based participatory research, grant writing workshops, and learn about open research studies.